Approval process for a combined permit and amendment of planning schemes
Part 3, Land Use Planning and Approvals Act 1993

Certification

Council decides whether to initiate amendment and consider permit application

- Council prepares and certifies amendment
- Council determines permit application
- Process ends

Exhibition

Council exhibits amendment and permit

- Any person may make a representation during exhibition
- Council prepares report for TPC

Assessment

TPC considers report, representations and amendment

- TPC may hold hearings

Decision-making

TPC decides if amendment is in order

- Approve
- Reject
- Modify
- Substantial alterations

- TPC modifies amendment and approves
- TPC directs Council to modify
- Council provides TPC with modified amendment
- TPC approves amendment
- TPC certifies altered amendment