Table S1.9.1 Heritage and character values in Franklin

Description	Franklin is a small, riverside rural township. Franklin's origins lie with the philanthropy of Lady Jane Franklin who formed 'the Settlement' during the 1830's in an area now known as Franklin. Franklin has since developed with a unique sense of place informed by its riverside setting and surrounding rural hinterland together with the form, scale and positioning of buildings. Franklins' numerous historic cultural heritage places also contribute to the sense of place of Franklin. The design, scale, bulk and form of all buildings contribute to the character of Franklin and its streetscapes.
Heritage and character values of Franklin.	Heritage and character values of Franklin, that are to be maintained, are as follows: (a) a strong linear form positioned between the Huon River and rural hills affording extensive views of the river and creating a strong sense of place; (b) the established and well defined approaches to Franklin from the north and south; (c) evidence of the boundaries of 'the Settlement'; (d) the extensive reclaimed foreshore area providing opportunities for open space and recreation; (e) a mix of land uses, particularly along Main Street / Huon Highway, resulting in part from the lack of a central commercial area; (f) a dominance of single storey, modest dwellings with the majority dating from either pre-1910 or the inter-war period; (g) public and commercial buildings of a scale commensurate with older dwellings or, in some instances, key landmarks in the streetscape through the unique use of height, scale and brick facade; (h) a dominance of timber cladding and corrugated iron roofs (or modern equivalents) in buildings;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">(i) the strong street presence of dwellings and commercial buildings achieved through minimal frontage setbacks and design elements such as a front verandah or patio, that clearly define the main pedestrian access, which is positioned to face the street;(j) garages, carports, outbuildings and car parking areas positioned to the rear of buildings enhancing the street presence and primacy of dwellings and commercial buildings in the streetscape;(k) small-scale, transparent front fencing often complemented by incorporated low-level landscaping or physical front fencing substituted by low-level landscaping;(l) relatively narrow roads and lanes leading off Main Street / Huon Highway that exhibit low level road engineering, with the absence of kerb and gutter or a concrete footpath, and rise up towards the western slopes in, at times, ad hoc alignments.
