Assessment process for draft State Policies
Part 2, State Policies and Projects Act 1993

Initiation
- Minister directs TPC to report on the draft Policy
- TPC exhibits the draft Policy for 8 weeks
- Any person may make a representation to the TPC during the exhibition period

Assessment
- TPC considers the representations
- TPC may hold a hearing
- TPC may modify the draft Policy after considering the representations

Reporting
- TPC gives notice of its report in the Gazette and makes the report publicly available
- Minister may recommend the making of a State Policy
- State Policy must be approved by each House of Parliament before it can take effect
- TPC reports on the draft Policy to the Minister

TPC: Tasmanian Planning Commission