Hi Adam,

I have had a look at this property, and this will be fine for a firearms licence, however no shooting across the highway would be allowed

Good afternoon Adam

Thanks for your enquiry

I will require the actual address of your property to check it on Listmap to make sure it complies with Section 113 (2) of the Firearms Act

113. Recklessly discharging firearm

- (2) A person must not discharge a firearm within 250 metres of a dwelling house except –
- (a) on an approved range; or
 - (b) with the consent of the occupier of the dwelling house.

Hi

I apologise for such late notice with this request.
I own a vineyard on the east coast and currently shoot starlings on my land before I apply nets to my crop.

Tomorrow our council are considering a rezoning issue. My ability to use firearms on my land will be taken into account so I need to confirm that I am legally allowed to shoot along side the Tasman Highway as long as I do not shoot over it.

Could someone at firearms services please confirm that I am allowed to shoot right up to my highway boundary.

Thanks for your help
Kind regards
