I'd like to add my voice to the No vote.

This state is seriously short of money for health, housing and education.

That site down at Macquarie Wharf could have many better uses than for a stadium. We already have two stadiums here - and the parking around them both is virtually impossible. Where would people park if a new stadium was built at MacQuarie Point? We don't have the luxury of rail and bus networks like Melbourne.

And the proposed cost of $300 million? You might as well double that...

Get some priorities right, for goodness' sake!

Yours sincerely

Lindsay Flower (Mrs.)
